The Path Guide: 24 spots worth getting lost for

Reds Bistro and Wine Bar

Tucked away from the hustle of First Canadian Place, Reds has been a place to unwind with a glass of, well, red since opening in 2000. The downstairs bar accommodates tittle-only customers, who order from a list of 80 wines served by the glass. Executive chef Michael Steh (Canoe, Biff's) works with sommelier Taylor Thompson (Jamie Kennedy Wine Bar) to come up with a wine pairing for each dish. The menu features more than 30 cheeses from the Cheese Boutique ($7 per cheese, $18 for three) and two charcuterie platters ($20 for eight samples, $49 for about 20) composed of in-house-aged meat from Cumbrae's.

Reds Bistro and Wine Bar, First Canadian Place (street level), 77 Adelaide St. W. (at Bay), 416-862-7337, redsbistro.com.
